- Responsibilities and tasks of disaster relief volunteer, Taiwan's disaster prevention system and operation.
- Disaster characteristics of Taiwan.
- Information Acquisition, Utilization and Community Disaster Prevention Planning.
- Basic first aid training and Implementation of emergency rescue.
- Promotion and operation of community disaster prevention work.
- Personal and Home Protection Measures.
- Opening and operation of community shelters.
- Disaster Prevention Plan Implementation and Verification.

Course schedule link : <https://reurl.cc/L4yKje>

We have carefully selected experienced trainers and subject matter experts who possess extensive knowledge and practical experience in disaster management.

Participants will have the opportunity to engage in interactive sessions and gain valuable insights from their expertise.

The course fee is free per participant, which includes all training materials, lunch, and a certificate of completion. Please note that spaces are limited, and registration will be on a first-come, first-served basis.

The deadline for registration is July 3 (Wed).

We believe that your organization's active involvement in this training course will significantly contribute to enhancing disaster preparedness and response capabilities within your community. Together, we can make a real difference in safeguarding lives and minimizing the impact of unforeseen events.

Thank you for your attention, and we look forward to your positive response.
